The Yoram Loewenstein acting school is located in the heart of Hatikva neighborhood. It's the most neglected neighborhood in Tel-Aviv. The uniqueness of the school is in the combination between the highest level of professional acting studies with community work in the neighborhood where the school is located.

Few such institutions exist around the world.

As part of the training to become professional actors, the acting students are committed to lead 16 drama groups within the community such as :children and youth at-risk, immigrant's children in distress, children and youth with special needs and emotional problems elderly and more.

About The Play

In a tough, without compromise world, each and every one of us is wearing many protection layers. A bubble defending us from getting hurt

A rare glimpse into the world of Hatikva neighborhood youth. Through funny, kicking and moving monologues interlaced in one another, a window is open to their life stories.
